

Resources and Websites for e-Safety

Thinkuknow <http://thinkuknow.co.uk> - advice for all including infant, junior and senior school children, parents and professionals from the Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre (CEOP)

Childnet <http://www.childnet-int.org>

- Knowitall – <http://www.childnet.com/kia> - suite of education resources designed to help educate parents, teachers and young people about safe and positive use of the internet.
- Currently there are 4 KIA resources for Parents and Carers (including different languages), Secondary Schools, Primary Schools and Trainee Teachers and all four resources include content for young people...
- Kidsmart – <http://www.kidsmart.org.uk> - good resource split into a site for kids and a site for people who work with kids.

Digizen <http://www.digizen.org> – Lots of information on Cyber-bullying and Social Networks.

Cyber-Mentors <http://cybermentors.org.uk> - Cyber-Mentors is all about young people helping and supporting each other online. Staffed by trained YP, Cyber-mentors provide a service to support and listen to YP who are being bullied. The cyber-mentors are supported by BACP accredited counsellors.

IWF www.IWF.org.uk - The UK internet Hotline for the public and ICT professionals to report criminal online content in a secure and confidential way. The IWF works in partnership with the online industry, law enforcement, government and international partners to minimize to availability of this content.

Facebook Safety Centre <https://facebook.com/safety> - Facebook's own advice section on keeping yourself safe, also points to reporting mechanisms within Facebook itself.

UK Safer Internet Centre <http://saferinternet.org.uk> - Here you can find out the latest advice on how to use the internet and new technologies safely and responsibly. Also find a range of practical resources, news and events focusing on the safe and responsible use of the internet and new technologies. Also hosts the Professional Online Safety Helpline – <http://www.saferinternet.org.uk/helpline> Which provides advice and help to professionals who work with children and young people in the UK, specifically tackling the area of e-safety. We provide support with all aspects of digital and online issues such as social networking sites, cyber-bullying, sexting, online gaming and child protection online. The helpline aims to resolve issues professionals face about themselves, such as protecting professional identity and reputation, as well as young people in relation to online safety.

360 Degree Safe <http://www.360safe.org.uk> - e-safety audit tool for schools.

Online Compass <http://www.onlinecompass.org.uk> - e-safety audit tool for non-school environments.